About the London Youth Games

For over 40 years we have proudly delivered an extensive programme of events including over 30 sports, providing opportunities for young Londoners in both their school and community settings. With our fantastic partners Nike, Sport England, the GLA, London Sport and the 33 Boroughs of London we are excited to enter the next phase of our development having recently released our new five-year strategy “Every Young Londoner’s Games”.

Dina Asher-Smith, Raheem Sterling and David Weir are some of the sporting legends who have achieved great things having taken part in the London Youth Games. However, it is not just elite performers we create opportunities for. We are committed to providing opportunities through both participation and volunteering for all young Londoners, with a commitment that our workforce and the Games become reflective of London’s rich diversity. We encourage applications from people from diverse backgrounds including Black, Asian, and ethnically diverse people, disabled people, women, and people from the LGBTQ+ communities.

About You

London Youth Games are looking for a passionate individual with experience in sport development, competition, and delivery. As a member of a wider Sport Development and Delivery Team, you will oversee a portfolio of specific sports, and utilise strong inter-personal and relationship management skills, underpinned by acute attention to detail. You will also be able to demonstrate an understanding of, or have a background engaging disabled people, and will have a strong commitment to improving opportunities for young disabled people within the programme.

Role Purpose

- To work with the Sport Development and Delivery Team to deliver competitions of the highest quality.
- To develop a portfolio of sports and manage relationships with National Governing Bodies and other delivery partners.
- To support and be a key point of contact regarding entry management and competition management systems.
- To ensure competition schedules are planned, delivered, and reviewed and underpinned by effective logistical planning and implementation.
- To explore and lead on increasing initiatives and opportunities for young disabled Londoners who require added support to engage with the programme.

Key Responsibilities

Competition Delivery:

- Coordinate competition entries across your portfolio of sports. This will include the creation/update of entry processes, collation of entries, formulating draws and sending competition information to boroughs/schools/participants.
- Develop and deliver a portfolio of competitions across various sports. This will include working with Competition Directors and/or National Governing Bodies of sports to ensure the competitions are delivered in the appropriate format, and rules and regulations are up to date and communicated.
- Work with the Event & Workforce team to recruit and train competition volunteers to support delivery on event days.
- Lead on the preparation of documentation, equipment processes and systems required for effective delivery of the competition on event day.
- Liaise effectively with National Governing Bodies to ensure that the competition programme meets the requirements of the sport's national framework, contributes to the sport's player pathway and develops appropriate exit routes for the young Londoners.

Disability:

- Take a leading role in the organisation's commitment to providing more opportunities for young disabled Londoners who require added support to access and engage with the programme.
- Work with National Governing Bodies and other organisations to identify ways the programme can better cater to the needs of these individuals and improve their engagement, and possible funding avenues to increase resource for these initiatives.
- Liaise with Borough Team and School Games Organisers to understand the challenges they face engaging this demographic, and work towards effective solutions.

Entry and Competition Management System

- Support the organisations development and implementation of the entry and competition management system, ensuring it is updated and used effectively across the whole team.
- Support boroughs and schools with the competition entry process, ensuring support and help guides are kept up to date, and key information communicated.

Partnerships:

- Effectively work with partners across all YG programmes to ensure YG competition framework meets the requirements of the sport's national framework, contributes to the sport's player pathway and develops appropriate exit routes for all young Londoners.
- Develop relationships and work with organisations committed to improving opportunities for young disabled people to improve the accessibility of our programme.

Event Support:

- Lead sport competition delivery on event days, ensuring all staff and volunteers are supported and can confidently fulfil their roles to the highest quality.
- Be responsible for post event day administration such as reporting on attendance and entries and communicating results in a timely fashion.

Person Specification

Essential

- Knowledge and experience of sport competition management and delivery.
- Workable experience of entry and competition management systems and data processing.
- Understanding of data processing and working with partners to use data, collect insight and evidencing impact.
- Experience of event and/or project management.
- Understanding of, or experience in working with people living special educational needs, or living with a disability.
- Basic understanding of competition pathways and different competition formats in youth sport.
- Excellent communication skills, both written and oral.
- Experience of working with and alongside others to complete a project with a specific outcome.

Desirable

- Experience working on a variety of sports.
- Experience of working with young people.
- Experience recruiting, training, and managing volunteers
- Confident working with partners at all levels of seniority.
- Knowledge of the sporting landscape in London.
- Strong attention to detail.

Other Requirements of Role

- The post holder will need to work some evenings and weekends.
- YG has a commitment to a positive work-life balance.

Equality and Diversity

- LYG is committed to championing equality and diversity in all aspects of employment and in the services that it provides.
- All employees are expected to understand and promote the LYG Equal Opportunities Policy in the course of their work.
- LYG is fully committed to the principles of equality of opportunity. We are responsible for ensuring that no job applicant receives less favourable treatment, on the grounds of age, gender reassignment, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, race, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, disability, or socio-economic background than any other.
- Disabled applicants meeting the minimum requirement of the role will be offered an interview. Please indicate in your cover letter if this may be applicable to your application.
