RFL 5 Competition and Draw Format

RFL 5.1 Rugby League 9's is a modified version of Rugby League that focuses on the social aspects of the team sport. This simplified version creates an environment that allows each player the opportunity to get their hands on the ball and have a positive experience.

RFL 5.2 Matches will be 10 minutes with no half time

RFL 5.3 1st session will be pool games with all teams progressing to the 2nd session.

RFL 5.4 Draw format to be confirmed after entries have closed.

RFL 6 Competition Rules

RFL 6.1 Maximum of 9 players from each team on the pitch at one time.

RFL 6.2 During games, unlimited substitutions can be made, these must be made during stoppages in the game e.g., turnovers etc.

RFL 6.3 The normal 6 tackle rule applies.

RFL 6.4 A try is scored in the normal way by placing or touching the ball down on or over the opponents try line. A normal try is worth 4 points, a try in the 'Bonus Box' is worth 6 points. There are no conversions after tries.

School Games Rugby League 9's 2023

Entry Information & Rules

RFL 6.5 Bonus Box The area between each try lines posts and dead in goal line. If there are no posts, two coloured cones can be placed on the try line where the posts would normally be (10 metre area in the middle of the try line) to represent the area. Tries that are scored within this area will be worth 6 points.

RFL 6.6 All defending players must be back 5 metres from the play the ball except for a single marker who must be square to the play the ball without interfering. Any defending player including the marker is not allowed to move up (move forward to make a tackle) until the ball is picked up by the attacking dummy half.

RFL 6.7 Any tackled player should restart the game by way of a play the ball. The ball must be played backwards in the correct manner and where the tackle occurred.

RFL 6.8 Kicking from the hands i.e. bomb, punt, chip, grubber is allowed in open play. This can be on any tackle throughout the game.

RFL 6.9 The game will commence with a play the ball from the centre line at the beginning of each half with one marker in place.

RFL 6.10 There will be no scrums during games. See below points for further instructions around errors or infringements:

- a) A player knock-on or forward pass: this will result in a handover at the point of the infringement to the non-offending team with a new six tackles. Play will restart with a play the ball and one marker in place.
- b) A player runs out into touch with the ball, this will result in hand over 5 metres in from touch to the non-offending team with a new six tackles. Play will restart with a play the ball and one marker in place.

RFL 6.11 Any errors or infringement in the in-goal area will result in play restarting 5 metres from the goal line with a 'play the ball' in a central position to the non-offending side.

RFL 6.12 No ball stealing allowed by any player at any time.

RFL 6.13 Any act of foul play will result in a handover at the point of the infringement to the non-offending team with a new six tackles. Play will restart with a play the ball and one marker in place.
