

LYG Participants Code of Conduct

As a participant taking part in London Youth Games competitions and events, I agree and abide by the principles detailed in this code of conduct.

Responsibility

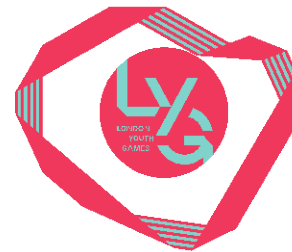

- I will take care of myself and look out for the welfare for others.
- I will disclose any injury or condition that may put me at harm or impact my place in the competition, or my future health.
- I will not leave the competition or event site without a suitable adult or consent.
- I will not possess or consume illegal and /or performance enhancing substances or smoke whilst participating in LYG competitions and events.
- I will not engage in inappropriate physical contact, use abusive language, or condone bullying behaviour.
- I will not engage in abuse online or on social media.
- I will not bring any inappropriate weapons to competition or event days.

Fair Play

- I will always treat people with respect and appreciate that all participants bring something valuable to the Games.
- I will compete according to the rules of my sport and the London Youth Games competition or event rules.
- I will respect all officials and their decisions and take time to thank the people that help deliver the competition.
- I will celebrate the successes of myself and others.

Equity and Inclusiveness

- I will value and learn from the diversity of people, respecting the differences in gender, disability, culture race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, and religious belief systems.

- I will not tolerate or be involved with discrimination of any kind, and I will report any incidents that I witness.

I understand that if I breach this code of conduct, the concerns will be followed up with my Team Managers, Teachers and Parents / guardians and may result in my removal from all London Youth Games competitions and events.

Please report any concerns relating to the above or any safeguarding matters to the Designated Safeguarding Lead for London Youth Games, Katie Berry at safeguarding@londonyouthgames.org
